

DRI Members Share Their Victories

On March 12, 2024, a Riverside County jury returned a verdict in a case defended by Will Kronenberg. It involved a rear-end collision by a tractor trailer, and as a result the defense stipulated to liability and tried the case on damages, contending the plaintiff had received unnecessary care and surgeries. Plaintiff had undergone a two-level cervical discectomy and fusion and a two-level lumbar decompression all on liens, and presented over $750,000 in past medical expenses and a future life care plan of $2.2 million. Plaintiff asked the jury to award $11.6 million, the verdict came back at $109,000.

Kronenberg